Keeping our local Doctors up to date with Loveday news

Life at Loveday since our opening

We are delighted to say our Members Club activities are in full swing again at Kensington. So far this year, our Extraordinary Days have encompassed adventures organised by Robert, our award-winning Head of Lifestyle and Activities, ranging from musical experiences to Greek Independence Day, swimming and so much more.

Welcome to our Physiotherapy Department

At our Kensington Rehabilitation & Physio Suite, which features a beautiful outdoor terrace, our team of specialist physiotherapists can provide Members with orthopaedic, post-stroke and post-fall rehabilitation. Doctors are also welcome to bring their own expert team to provide tailored support.

signs of Alzheimer's Disease, shining a light on the new-generation medications being developed in clinical trials, the opportunities for patients and the future of research into Alzheimer's.

We look forward to welcoming your practices to future insightful CPD Talks within our beautiful Loveday residences.

Loveday at Home

Exceptional care in the comfort of your patient's home

Loveday at Home is a luxury care service that delivers the same incomparable level of care, experiences and lifestyle services as expected within a Loveday Residence to patients in their own homes. This can be as flexible as required and is tailored around the unique needs of each individual - from just a few hours a week to round-the-clock care. Our industry-leading team are passionate about helping people live life on their own terms, as independently as they wish to be. Our services also include invaluable support to family members, some of whom may be struggling to balance care requirements with other aspects of living.

Loveday and Re:Cognition Health - our latest 'CPD Talk' takes a keen look at spotting the early signs of Alzheimer's Disease

An apt marker of National Dementia Week, Loveday was proud to host award-winning consultant neuroradiologist Dr Emer McSweeney, the CEO and medical director of brain and mind experts Re:Cognition Health and KPMG Entrepreneur of the Year 2016. On 19 May, Dr McSweeney gave a fascinating talk on why it is important to spot the early

Oliver Peyton OBE judges our Great Platinum Jubilee Menu

Oliver Peyton OBE (centre) and Laurence Geller CBE (2nd right) with Loveday's winning chefs

With the Great British Menu and the Queen's Platinum Jubilee as our shining inspiration, we presented our very own Great Loveday Jubilee Menu to celebrated restaurateur and TV judge Oliver Peyton OBE, as well as Loveday Chairman Laurence Geller CBE, who originally trained as a chef and, last but not least, Loveday Group Executive Chef Matthew Dodge.

Each Loveday chef developed their own delicious dish, including a starter, fish course, main and dessert to reflect Her Majesty's original Coronation menu. The sensational winning dishes were then served to Members, their families and friends at celebratory lunches on Sunday 5th June. They included 'Lilibet's Asparagus Crown', 'Delices de Soles Elizabeth', 'Jubilee Beef Wellington' and 'Royal Strawberries & Queen'.

"I was blown away by the culinary creativity, combinations of flavours and, most importantly, the taste"

Loveday Kensington General Manager receives British Empire Medal

We are delighted to announce that Adam Tallis, General Manager at Loveday

Kensington, has been awarded a British Empire Medal for his services to care during the Pandemic. As part of the ceremony, Adam was invited to attend a garden party at Buckingham Palace hosted by the Duchess of Cambridge. Having organised garden parties at Buckingham Palace in his previous career, Adam was thrilled to enjoy royal hospitality at first hand. Meanwhile, our Members certainly benefit from his unique experiences thanks to his recreation of regal tea parties and silver service touches fit for a Queen.

Loveday Abbey Road

This September sees the grand opening of our elegant residence in the heart of St John's Wood: Loveday Abbey Road. Superbly positioned in one of North London's grandest yet most peaceful villages, the residence sits a short stroll from the famous Abbey Road Studios and offers 26 luxurious suites with beautiful views, a world-class sensory garden and, naturally, 24-hour tailored compassionate senior and memory care.

Introducing Annette Naughton, Relationship Manager

To help support the opening of Loveday Abbey Road we are delighted that Annette has joined the Loveday Team.

Annette has rich and varied experience in relationship management in healthcare, spanning over 25 years. Her previous role was at the Fortius Clinic, a private orthopaedic hospital in central London working with consultants, GP's physicians, physiotherapists and corporate clients.

With in-depth knowledge and understanding of the healthcare industry she is ideally placed to help find the best care services Loveday can offer for your patients.

Referring into Loveday

If you would like to refer your patients to Loveday and enjoy the support of our specialist team of care experts, we would encourage you to contact our Relationship Managers Zara Jaworski and Annette Naughton. They will be delighted to talk through our seamless referral process over a delicious lunch and work closely with you and the discharge team.
